3. Public speaking:
 - Cllr Potter – Planning issues:
 - Peak Park are recommending refusal a number of times to farmers who are putting in applications for additional housing on the farm to allow whole families to stay on the farm. This is not acceptable.
 - Similarly, an application from Stoney Middleton for some house on the left-hand side. The applicants consulted with every resident in the village and incorporated suggestions in the application. Officers wanted to refuse it and committee members unanimously overturned it but kept coming back. Finally, it has been approved.
 - Cllr Hobson:
 - Bins being emptied is still an issue and all are doing the best they can. Fly-tipping is increasing.
 - Platinum Jubilee is being discussed on the agenda and DCC has some money to support events.
 - Cllr Hobson has given some money to the Duke's Barn Toddler Group for some indoor play equipment.
 - Sewage works at Matlock is still on-going as emergency work.
